

Protecting the victim: rehabilitation

Source: World Vision Training Manual for Practitioners 2009/ COMMIT Training

Acknowledgement:

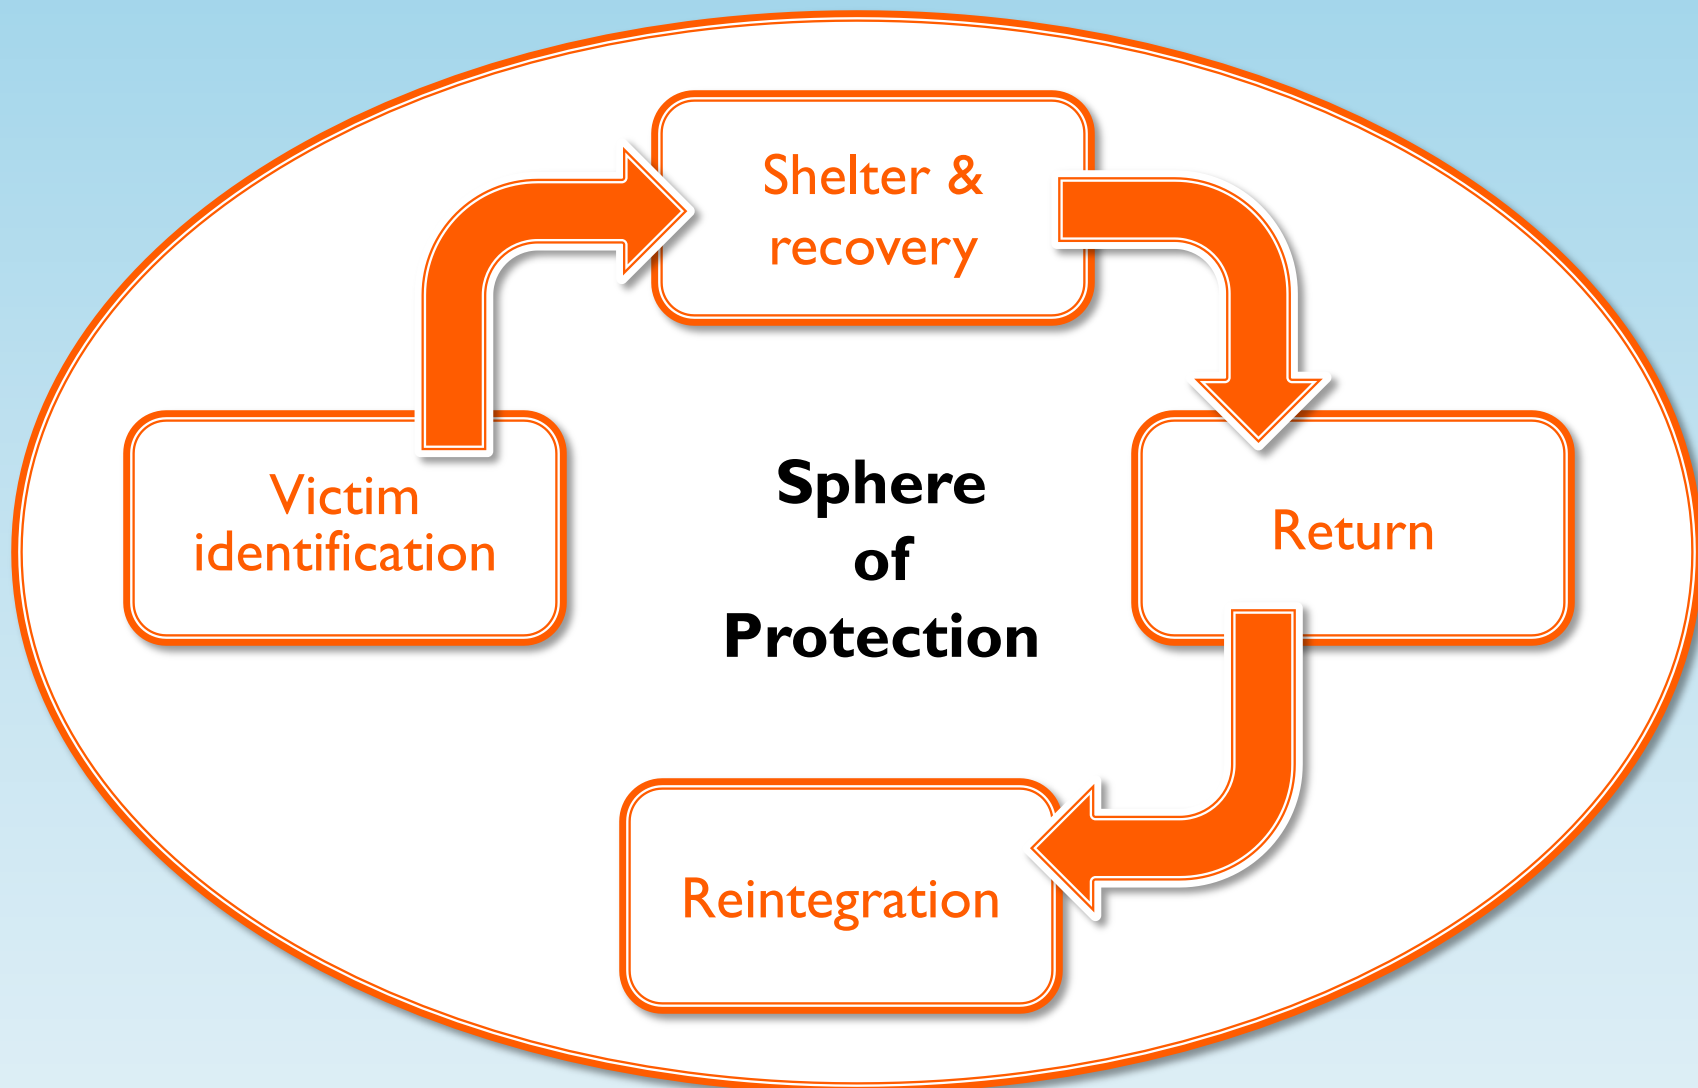

Slides adapted from IOM's presentation in the Regional Training Programme of the COMMIT

Essential steps in protecting a trafficked person

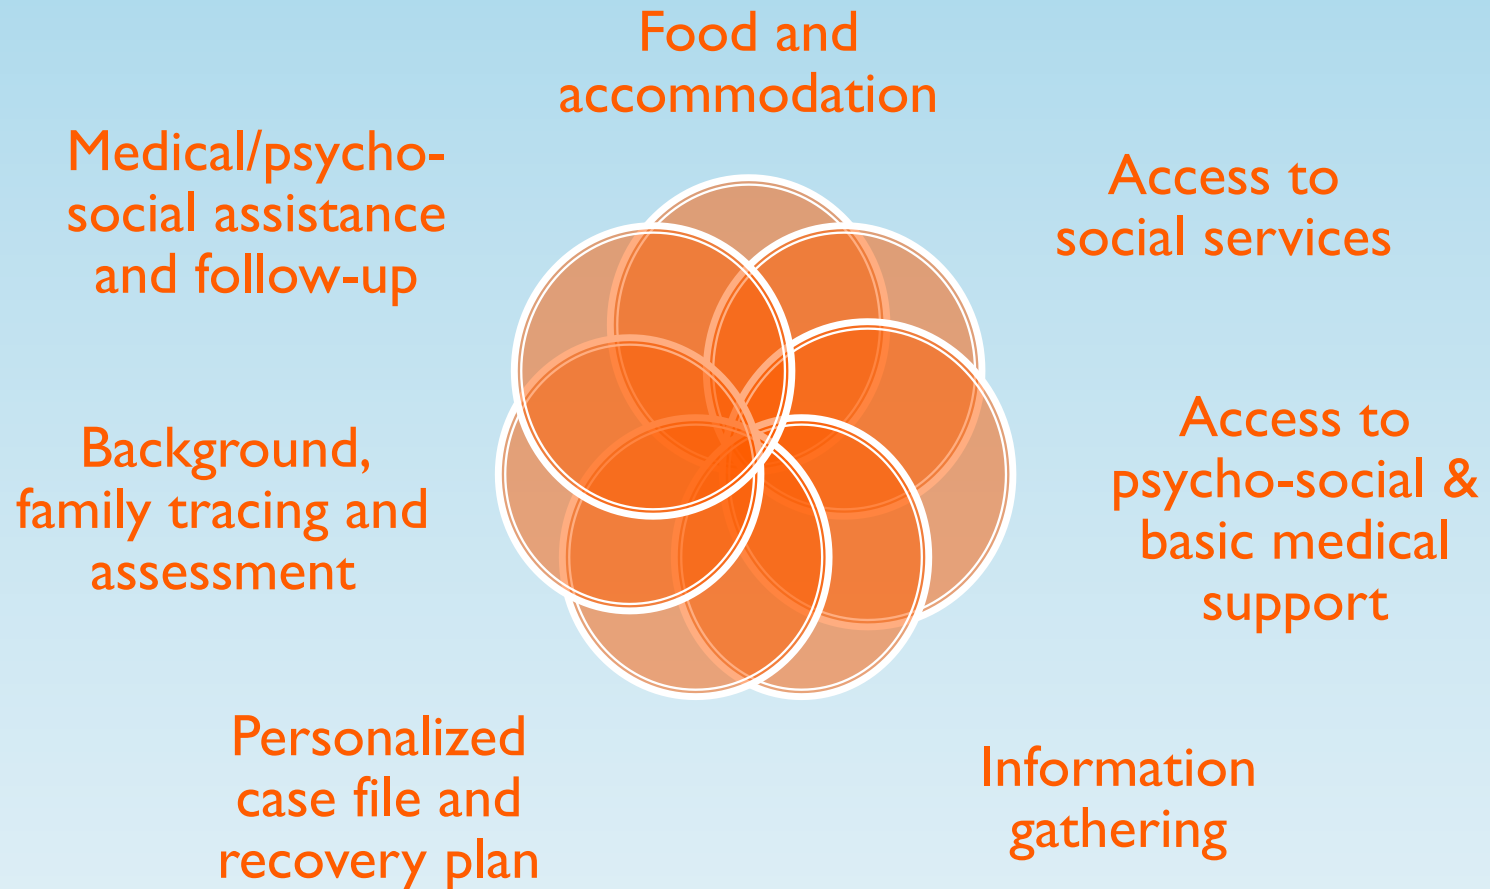

The above measures involve a series of standard operating procedures that need to be followed.

Victim safety and security

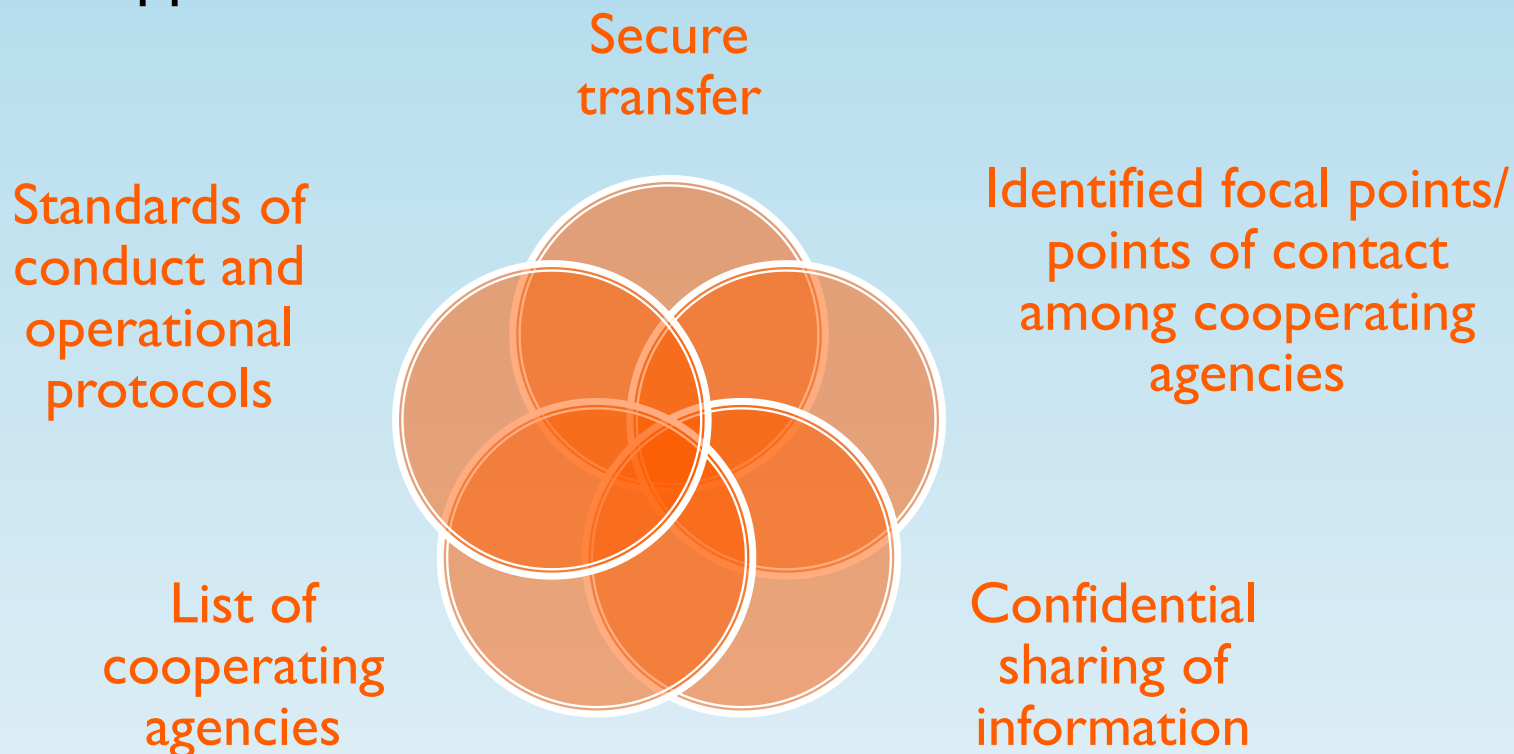

Shelter and recovery

Objective: to provide safe and secure accommodation and related social support for individuals identified as having been victims of trafficking.

Establishment of referral processes

Objective: to link together appropriately qualified service providers to facilitate the safe relocation of victims to appropriate shelters, safe houses and recovery centers, so they can receive appropriate care and support.

Questions?